Aims of Surrey Youth Focus Membership:

Please read the notes that describe the Aims and Services of Surrey Youth Focus membership. All new members must support these aims; please sign and date to agree.

Aims of Surrey Youth Focus

1. To promote good practice, efficiency and effectiveness of youth work in Surrey within its members' organisations for young people aged 5-25 years.
2. To provide information and advice to member organisations in all aspects of voluntary youth work.
3. To support the work of its member organisations to deliver services to young people without discrimination so as to develop their physical, mental and spiritual capacities.
4. To maximise the opportunities to member organisations to obtain support from financial and non-financial sources for the furtherance of this work.
5. To vigorously represent at all appropriate levels the interests of its members in the furtherance of their work with young people.
6. To work with other partners to uphold the principles of the Youth Accord and Surrey Compact.
7. To innovate, explore, and help our members deliver the best for their young people.
